

3) Stock Maintenance System

- should be able to track products
- should be able to automatically update stock
- we should be able to generate reports regarding the stock
- the db should be secure
- the db should be able to store numerous items and their data.