

00MD LAB

SRS (Software Requirement specification)

1) College Information System.

- The entry of a new student into the apartment
- The entry of a new faculty into the department
- Declaration of student results
- The entry of attendance information
- Enrollment of students into a new course.
- The db storing the details must be secured.
- The system should be easy to work with
- The response time should be very small
- The system should be developed within the specified budget
- The student details should be displayed
- The course details should be displayed.