5) Online shopping system.

- Provide search facility
- Tailored content for the user
- Displayed related items
- Create sellable items on websites
- Provide a personalised profits
- Detailed invoice generation

- Provide shopping cart facilities
- Allow multiple payment methods
- Provide better performance than usual as the website is run from a server and takes an initial load of interest to fetch.
- Provide secure data transfer between server and customer system
- the server should provide sufficient data storage for customer data
- the system should make the whole process reliable. providing safety from errors, damages, accidents considerable or non-considerable.
- The db should be properly maintained.
- Login/sign up page, Homepage containing production according to user interest
- Screen displaying information about products.
- On selecting a product, the new ~~task~~ tab is opened.
- A user copy of the invoice generated.